School Community Newsletter

Edition 8 1st June, 2016

Dear St Finbar's Community,

How do we ensure a quality education at St Finbar's Glenbrook?

St Finbar's Glenbrook is a faith filled learning community. We are fortunate to be part of a dynamic system of schools known as the Parramatta Diocese.

All Catholic Schools in Parramatta follow a common Religious Education curriculum called "Sharing Our Story". This is based on the shared praxis model. This is further enhanced through our relationship with the Parish.

We follow the syllabus as outlined by The Board of Studies, Teaching and Educational Standards NSW (BOSTES)

BOSTES was created by the NSW government in 2014 to sustain and improve the already high standards of achievement in NSW schools.

BOSTES brings together the curriculum, teaching, assessment, registration and policy functions previously provided by the Board of Studies NSW, and the NSW Institute of Teachers.

At St Finbar's Glenbrook, we work collaboratively to provide for the needs of each of our students. The classroom teacher works with a team of professionals, which could include their Stage partner, teacher's aides, Learning Support Teacher, Librarian, Reading Recovery Teacher or EMU Specialist teacher. We are also fortunate to have specialised Creative Arts Teachers and tutors. We also have a school counsellor who visits our school on a weekly basis.

The Leadership Team supports every class in the school. This starts at the planning stage and can also include team teaching, triads (where teachers seek specific feedback on students or strategies used in the classroom). The Leadership Team may also take small groups to work within the class. Case Management also involves a meeting of these professionals to plan future pathways for a child's learning.

In all Parramatta Diocese Schools, additional support is provided for students with specific learning/behaviour needs and for classes larger than 30. There are support teams from Catholic Education Diocese of Parramatta (CEDP) that can be called on if further support is required.

Our teachers are supported with remaining up to date with current research on pedagogy through Professional Development. The CEDP support us in this area by providing opportunities that will assist us in achieving our Implementation Plan Goals. All professional development opportunities are accredited by BOSTES and link to the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers.

As parents, you also contribute to a quality education when you support the work of the school. This is achieved through open communication and respect shown to teachers.

St Finbar's Glenbrook is a rich learning environment and we are fortunate to be members of this community.

Yours in Christ

Ms Donna McFadzean

Dear Parents and Friends,

Grandparent's Day

A massive thank you to all the parents and especially the Grandma's and Grandpa's that came up to school yesterday and shared in our celebration of Grandparents. I think the quote included on the reflection slideshow was perfect, it went along the lines of: God knew he couldn't be everywhere, so he created Grandparents! And what an AMAZING gift they are to all of us. It was lovely to see the Grandparents reading their grandchildren stories and then their grandchildren reading them stories. The love and excitement in the eyes of the children was priceless. What a wonderful community we have here at St Finbar's - we all need to cherish and continue to share this love that surrounds us.

Week 6 Whole School Assembly

Congratulations to those students in our community who were acknowledged at this week's assembly, for being Respectful, Safe, Learners and filled with Faith. They are listed later in this Newsletter. We have been focusing on ways we can be Respectful over the last few weeks and we continue to discuss this with the children and investigate the simple ways that we can show respect for adults and each other. It is so important for our children to see the adults in their lives living out this respect in all interactions they have, in order for them to then interact with others in the same respectful way. It would be great for you to have a conversation over dinner tonight of the different and simple ways we can be respectful to one another and of course to acknowledge when your beautiful children do exactly that - show respect for others - especially with their siblings!

Hot Reads

Mrs Stenning and Mrs Southern shared their Hot Reads with us this week - what are your Hot Reads from over the past couple of weeks - we'd love to hear about them!

Meeting with Teachers

At St Finbar's, we always encourage parents to make contact with their child's teacher at any time. We do provide formal opportunities for this to occur, with the next formal opportunity coming at the end of this term after Semester 1 reports go home. But we understand that things come up and need to be discussed and we believe 'the sooner the better' - do not let things get too much! All we ask that you understand that these meetings need to occur at appropriate times that suit both yourself and the teacher. Often teachers are unable to meet either right before school or right after due to their duty of care to the students in their class. Once the students are walking into class the teachers are focused on the students and their learning and cannot be distracted by parents wanting a 'quick 5 minutes'. In these cases please walk to the office and speak with Mrs Mulhall and she will arrange for another time for you to meet with the teacher as soon as possible. We appreciate and value your conversations and thank you for your understanding and support.

A few notices and some reminders:

- Our Kindergarten Interviews for 2017 begin in Week 7. If you know anyone with a child starting Kindergarten in 2017 please let them know, it is not too late to get their enrolment package from the office. Interview times are now available please contact the Office.
- Monday the 13th June is the Queen's Birthday Public Holiday!

God Bless,

Lisa Samojlowicz

SAFE USE OF TECHNOLOGY: GUIDELINES FOR PARENTS

By taking responsibility for your children's online computer use, parents can greatly minimize any potential risks of being online. Make it a family rule to:

- If your child is young consider being with your child when he or she is on the Internet.
- Warn your child not to give out identifying information.
- Get to know the services your child uses.
- Never allow a child to arrange a face-to-face meeting with another computer user without parental permission.
- Remind your children to never respond to messages that are suggestive, obscene, belligerent, threatening, or make them feel uncomfortable.
- Remember that everything you read online may not be true.
- Set reasonable rules and guidelines for computer use by your children. Sit down together and create a family computer usage agreement.
- Consider using parental controls but know their limitations.
- Keep the computer in a family room rather than the child's bedroom. A computer in a Childs bedroom does not have to be connected to the internet.
- Supervise and monitor the use of the internet with your family. If issues arise address them quickly and know who to report problems.

- Encourage and support your family with their use of the internet. Teach them to make right decisions and increase the levels of responsibility as children get older.
- Understand what a device does before you buy. Make sure any device you purchase is appropriate to the age and experience of your child.
- Become familiar with the mobile technologies your children use or are introduced to by their friends.
- Don't give your children mobile phones just for the sake of it – inform yourself of all the risks and benefits before making a decision. Don't use prepaid mobile phone accounts if you need to monitor usage or manage SMS addiction.
- Involve your children in decision-making about internet accounts, mobile phone services and price plans so that they share responsibility for the cost of their activities online.

From the P & F

ZEBRA CROSSINGS, CANTEENS AND SOME MATHS!

Our P&F has had a really busy start to term 2, thanks to the efforts of some people I would like to mention. Firstly, Paul Ambrosoli followed up Council about the damaged storm water drain and pedestrian crossing on King Street. Council have now issued a work order to paint a zebra crossing where the current crossing is, add some warning paint and replace a couple of signs. Council replaced the storm water lid while inspecting. Thank you Paul for this.

We have to also thank Neil Evans for his help in cleaning out the canteen and remarking lines in the school yard. Speaking of the canteen, a separate note went out is week about Special Food Days. We are looking for a parent from each Year Group to volunteer to co-ordinate their allotted day. We also need 4-6 parents to help on the day to serve and prepare lunch orders. If you can help please fill out the form on the back of the note. Please contact our Vice President, Janette Ankers, if you have any questions. I also would like to thank Janette for putting this together.

Our May meeting kicked off with a fantastic session ran by Mrs Platt on maths. I found it very interesting and helpful in gaining an insight into how our children are taught maths today and how we can help our children. We've moved a long way from the days of counting rods and the abacus! A lot of effort is put into these sessions and the staff are giving up their spare time to run these sessions. So on behalf of the P&F, I would like to express our appreciation and I would encourage everyone to come along to the next session.

Juliet Hinchliffe has also continued to represent the P&F in relation to the proposed flight paths for the new airport for Western Sydney. This takes up a lot of her spare time and this is much appreciated.

The school is also asking for volunteers to do a letter box drop for the new brochures aimed at prospective students. We will put a note on the Skoolbag app as soon as we have collated the brochures. Please let the Mrs Mulhall know if you can help.

It was great to see some new faces at our May meeting. If you have not come along before, I encourage you to attend next month's meeting. It's your chance to meet some new people and have input into your child's school experience. Have a great week!

Dear Donna,

Ref: Glenbrook ANZAC Day

Please accept the sincere thanks from the President and all Sub Branch members for the support and involvement of you, your staff and students in making the day very memorable to all who attended.

I trust that it was felt that we "Did the Day Proud" and if so, your teams involvement made that so.

We look forward to ongoing involvement by St Finbars School at our ceremonies.

Your students, once again, were a credit to the school.

Best regards and thank you.

Yours faithfully,
